Good friends, if you want to read something indeed worth reading, buy for yourself "To Have and To Hold."

The heroine is one of the maids brought from England by Sir Edwyn Sandys to become a helpmate to a Virginia Colonist.

If he who causes two blades of grass to grow where only one grew before is a benefactor of mankind, what shall we say for the quiet, inoffensive sheep that destroys any and all vegetation in its reach? Taking issue with my honored father and my own "better half" who wish the pleasure of possessing green fields, I suggest that they dispense with this profitable (?) animal.

I very much appreciate an invitation to attend the Musicale to be given at the College Hall next Friday evening, the 27th, which promises to be an entertaining event. The program found in this issue of the News shows the good quality of the talent employed. Miss Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ganane, of Fordsville, Misses Krall, McIntire, Nora Henderson, Nannie Lee Jolly, Rena Lewis, Anna Crabbe, Kitty McGlothlan and others take part. So let everybody come and get the benefit of something nice, as well as help a good cause.

GOLDEN ROD.

Just as Good—Whenever a druggist tells you he has something "just as good for coughs, colds, grip, etc., as Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, he is thinking of his profit and not of your welfare. Good druggists will sell you what you ask for, and you can ask for nothing as good as Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. Good druggists sell it.

Miss Laura Oiler and John Murphy were married last Sunday evening at the home of the bride's father, Mr. D. Oiler. We wish them a long and happy life.

There was a smash up scrape close to Jim Robert's Saturday night. Three men hired a rig from the livery stable, got in taking three jugs with them. We suppose the jugs over balanced the wagon and all went into a ditch, horse included. The men escaped with a few scratches and a broken wagon.

"A Single Fact"

Is worth a shipload of argument." What shall be said, then, of thousands of facts? Every cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla is a fact, presenting the strongest possible evidence of the merit of this medicine. Thousands and thousands of such facts prove that Hood's Sarsaparilla will cure all diseases caused or promoted by impure blood. It is the best medicine money can buy.

NEWSOM'S COLUMN.

Devoted this week to the Prohibition Cause.

DRUNKARDS!

ISAIAH, 5-11. Woe to them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow STRONG DRINK; that continue until night, till WINE inflame them.

JOEL, 1-5. Awake, ye DRUNKARDS, and weep; and howl, all ye DRINKERS of wine.

ST. LUKE, 21-34. And take heed to yourselves, lest that any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and DRUNKENNESS, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

ST. LUKE, 21-35. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

ROMANS, 13-13. Let us walk honestly, as in the day, not in rioting and DRUNKENNESS, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

GALATIANS, 5-21. Envyings, murders, drunkenness, and such like, of which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of Heaven.

Come out next Saturday and vote right.
